

Creative? Help us name the new enterprise system of excellence

The opportunity: Come up with a memorable name for the future L3 Harris Technologies' company-wide operating system of continuous improvement. L3 uses L365. Harris calls its program HBX, for Harris Business Excellence. Now, with two great companies planning to come together as one, the Integration Management Office (IMO) is inviting all employees to help create a brand-new name, and we're looking for your best ideas!

"We think it's a great way to give employees a voice in something that involves them directly every day," says Shelley Gilliland, L3's Corporate Vice President of L365 – Continuous Process Improvement & Quality. Gilliland is the Quality IMO co-lead, collaborating with Sam Schwall, Harris's Vice President of Quality and HBX. Both are focused on finding ways to continually elevate quality as a differentiator for customers and a key contributor to enhancing shareholder value. Both also agree that a new name for Continuous Improvement will help to usher in a new era of excellence and innovation, starting on Day 1.

"Continuous improvement begins with the individual," notes Schwall, adding that "by driving excellence in every part of the combined entity, we will win with customers, employees and investors. The branding of our unified operating system for continuous improvement will be a launching pad for the next generation of innovative ideas."

All Harris and L3 Technologies employees are encouraged to participate. Keep your suggestions brief and easy to remember. Submit your entries by March 5 using the button below. All entries will be considered and ultimately L3 and Harris CEOs, Chris Kubasik and Bill Brown, will make the final decision.

"We are looking forward to receiving some terrific entries," says Schwall. "The best-case scenario, and one we are fully expecting, is that we'll be overwhelmed with creativity."

Gilliland adds, "We're hoping that employees are engaged and excited to help L3 Harris Technologies reach new heights of performance."

All statements other than historical facts may be forward-looking statements; words such as "may," "will," "should," "likely," "projects," "financial guidance," "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "estimates," and similar expressions are used to identify forward-looking statements. L3 and Harris caution investors that these statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond L3's and Harris' control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied or projected by, the forward-looking information and statements. In addition to factors previously disclosed in L3's and Harris' reports filed with the SEC and those identified elsewhere in this communication, the following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from forward-looking statements or historical performance; the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the right of one or both of L3 and Harris to terminate the definitive merger agreement between L3 and Harris; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against L3, Harris or their respective directors; the risk that the stockholder approvals of L3 or Harris may not be obtained on the expected schedule or at all; the ability to obtain regulatory approvals and satisfy other closing conditions to the merger in a timely manner or at all, including the risk that regulatory approvals required for the merger are not obtained or are obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; delay in closing the merger; difficulties and delays in integrating the L3 and Harris businesses or fully realizing anticipated cost savings and other benefits; business disruptions from the proposed merger that may harm L3's or Harris' businesses, including current plans and operations; any announcement relating to the proposed transaction could have adverse effects on the ability of L3 or Harris to retain and hire key personnel or maintain relationships with suppliers and customers, including the U.S. government and other governments, or on L3's or Harris' operating results and businesses generally; the risk that the announcement of the proposed transaction could have adverse effects on the market price of the common stock of either or both of L3's and Harris' common stock and the uncertainty as to the long-term value of the common stock of the combined company following the merger; certain restrictions during the pendency of the merger that may impact L3's or Harris' ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions; the business, economic and political conditions in the markets in which L3 and Harris operate; and events beyond L3's and Harris' control, such as acts of terrorism.

These forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this communication or as of the date they were made, and neither L3 nor Harris undertakes any obligation to update forward-looking statements. As for the forward-looking statements that relate to future financial results and other projections, actual results will be different due to the inherent uncertainties of estimates, forecasts and projections and may be better or worse than projected and such differences could be material. Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purpose only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.
